

Create a map!

Draw a map! It can be an island, a treasure island, a forest, a town, your own street and house – anywhere – but it must include an X because as every treasure seeker knows, X marks the spot. Once you've drawn your map, which can include dragons or castles or swamps or multi-storey car parks and shopping centres, write a short story about it.