

Important books

Watch Matthew's video about the world's deadliest book, then think of a book you think everyone should read. Tell us what it is, and why you think everyone should read it.

Then either draw a picture of the cover, or design your own cover that shows how important it is!

The book I recommend is called

I think everyone should read it because

[A large area for drawing a book cover, divided into two sections: a left column with 10 horizontal lines for writing and a right column with 10 horizontal lines for drawing.]
