

Eyam Quiz

| | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|
| The Bubonic Plague was transported by fleas on which rodent? | Black Rat (Rattus rattus) | | Brown Rat (Rattus norvegicus) | |
| People thought the plague was transmitted by bad smells. What was the name for the object they carried as protection that contained sweet smelling herbs and spices? | A colander | | A pomander | |
| What was in the parcel that brought the plague to Eyam? | Books | | Cloth | |
| How many people died from the plague in Eyam in 1665 and 1666? | 290 | | 260 | |
| During the quarantine how did the villagers buy food? | They left money at the edge of the village, in water troughs, a well and the boundary stone. | | They rolled coins down the hill to the next village. | |
| Who was the first person to die from plague in Eyam? | The tailor | | The tailor's assistant | |
| One treatment was to place a live bird - a chicken or pigeon - or a toad over the lumps to draw out the infection. | True | | False | |
| What did the villagers use to disinfect the coins they used to buy food? | Vinegar | | Horse wee | |

CHILDREN'S BOOKS INSPIRED BY EYAM

A Parcel of Patterns by Jill Paton Walsh. (Vintage)

Tells the story of Mall, a shepherd girl, who lives in the village when the plague hits the village of Eyam.

Children of Winter by Berlie Doherty (UCLan Publishing)

Catherine and her younger sister and brother are sheltering in a barn when they are transported back in time when three other children spent the winter there, in refuge from the plague.

Eyam Quiz

Answers

| | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|---|
| The Bubonic Plague was transported by fleas on which rodent? | Black Rat (Rattus rattus) | ✓ | Brown Rat (Rattus norvegicus) | |
| People thought the plague was transmitted by bad smells. What was the name for the object they carried as protection that contained sweet smelling herbs and spices? | A colander | | A pomander | ✓ |
| What was in the parcel that brought the plague to Eyam? | Books | | Cloth | ✓ |
| How many people died from the plague in Eyam in 1665 and 1666? | 290 | | 260 | ✓ |
| During the quarantine how did the villagers buy food? | They left money at the edge of the village, in water troughs, a well and the boundary stone. | ✓ | They rolled coins down the hill to the next village. | |
| Who was the first person to die from plague in Eyam? | The tailor | | The tailor's assistant | ✓ |
| One treatment was to place a live bird - a chicken or pigeon - or a toad over the lumps to draw out the infection. | True | ✓ | False | |
| What did the villagers use to disinfect the coins they used to buy food? | Vinegar | ✓ | Horse wee | |