

Create a Flyer to invite adventurers to take part in a race around the world!

First, watch Nat's Time Tunnellers video.

The Writing Challenge: Create a flyer advertising a race around the world competition, inviting participants.

To plan your piece of writing, make some notes about the CONTENT first:

What dynamic images or drawings could you include? Or a logo, perhaps?
What will be the rules of the race?
Who can join in?
What other information is crucial? Websites? Email addresses? Dates? Costs?

Then think about the LANGUAGE AND STYLE you will use.

Think of a catchy headline first – something to hook your reader in.

What may tempt someone to sign up? The glory of winning? The prize money? The adventures along the way? The places they will see?

What words can you use to make the race as attractive as possible?
